The Health Career Pathways Partnership grant provides tuition-free training to low-income* individuals for select health occupation courses/programs at San Jacinto College. These courses will prepare students to enter the workforce in high demand health professions, or continue their healthcare education to higher income careers.

*Recipients of TANF, SNAP, free breakfast & lunch benefits from Texas school districts, or have Harris Health "Gold Card." Verifiable income equal or less than 150% poverty level.

**Other opportunities are available for training, if not chosen for training through HCPP Cannot be currently enrolled in another educational/training program

- Earn a degree or certificate in healthcare - Tuition Free!
- Some programs can be completed in less than 6 months
- Work-based learning/Internships & job search assistance
- One-on-one counseling with participants that are chosen for the program to help make choices on their career path.

The Health Profession Opportunity Grant (HPOG) is a study funded by the federal government which is being conducted to determine how these training opportunities help people improve their skills and find better jobs. During the study, all new eligible applicants will be selected by lottery to participate in these training opportunities. Not all eligible applicants will be selected to participate in these opportunities. **
